CUTS OUT EVERY TREE IN STREET

BOARD OF TRUSTEES, VOTING THREE TO TWO, DECLARES THEM AS DANGEROUS

FEAR OF ACCIDENTS

GROWTHS STANDING IN CITY THOROUGHFARES MUST GO, IS MAJORITY ORDER

Removal of all trees growing in the streets of the city of Glendale was ordered, by a vote of three to two, at the meeting of the board of trustees last night. Trustees Henry, Robinson and Lapham voted in favor of the removal of the trees. Trustees Bartlett and Stephenson voted against. The order does not, of course, apply to trees in the parkings.

The question was brought before the board by Trustee Robinson, who declared that trees growing in the middle of the city's streets are a menace to life and property. He asserted that at night there is great danger of automobiles colliding with the trees or the concrete walls about them.

"If there is no danger from the trees in the street—if they belong there—let's plant others; put them on all the streets," said Trustee Robinson.

After some discussion, Trustee Henry made a motion to the effect that all trees in the city's streets be removed. It was seconded by Trustee Robinson and carried by the vote of three to two.

Amendment Is Proposed

Before the vote was taken, Mrs. Bartlett proposed an amendment to the effect that one or two trees not in the middle of the street, yet not in the parking, be preserved. She said she would vote to have certain trees removed, but would vote against the motion declaring for the removal of all trees in the streets.

It seemed to be the opinion of all the trustees that trees in the center of Louise and Central should go. But both Mrs. Bartlett and Stephenson

SEEKS OPINION

BOARD OF TRUSTEES TO GET LEGAL POINTS REGARDING LOS ANGELES SEWER

The question as to whether the city of Glendale can take legal steps to force the city of Los Angeles to receive this city's sewage without annexation is to be answered in an opinion to be given by Hartley Shaw, city attorney.

At the meeting of the board of city trustees last night, Trustee Robinson declared that a number of people had put the question to him and he desired a legal opinion from the city attorney.

"Can we force the city of Los Angeles to accept our sewage?" questioned Trustee Robinson. "Is it legally possible for us to connect up with Los Angeles' sewage disposal system and compel Los Angeles to take the sewage? All this without annexation to Los Angeles, of course. I want to know. So do a lot of people. I move the city attorney inquire into the matter and give us an opinion."

The motion was seconded by Trustee Lapham and carried unanimously, care being taken to have it understood that the board has no thought of even considering annexation to Los Angeles in an attempt to solve the sewage problem.

New Contract Is Proposed

"The city attorney can, I venture to say, give us that opinion right now," declared Trustee Henry.

City Attorney Shaw, however, did not express himself and, it is presumed, will have a statement to make at the next meeting of the board.

The city attorney last night reported on the city's contract with Olmsted & Gillelen, an engineering firm which has prepared three plans for Glendale's sewage disposal, and suggested the terms of a new contract to take the place of the one now in effect.

Trustee Robinson has declared he is not satisfied with the present contract as, he claims, it is too binding on the part of the city. The text of the proposed new contract was read by the city attorney and, at the suggestion of Chairman Stephenson, a copy will be furnished each member of the board and it will probably be acted upon at the next meeting.

SAILOR FATALLY SHOT RESULT OF QUARREL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 14.—P. E. Peyton, a sailor assigned to the submarine base at San Pedro, was shot through the abdomen and perhaps fatally wounded early today in an altercation at an oil station here. R. E. Ray, in charge of the oil station, was arrested and declared he fired in self defense. The trouble is said to have arisen over the failure of Peyton and two other sailors who were with him to turn off a water faucet after filling the radiator of an automobile in which they were riding.

MAN CUT TO PIECES WHILE WIFE LOOKS ON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MERIDIAN, Miss., Jan. 14.—Moody Price, prominent Meridian lawyer and former United States commissioner for this district, was dragged from his bed early today by two unidentified men and was hacked to pieces with an axe while his wife looked on. Mrs. Price was not hurt. She was too hysterical to give a description of the murderers. Blood hounds were put on the slayers' trail.

ACCEPTS POSITION AS PREMIER OF FRANCE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Jan. 14.—Raoul Peret today definitely accepted the office of Premier of France. The acceptance was made definite after Peret had conferred with colleagues in the chamber of deputies, of which he was president. It is believed he will also have the portfolio of the interior. Peret conferred with several former premiers, who, it was believed, will accept places in the cabinet.

SOCIAL SESSIONS

METHODIST CHURCH MEMBERS ARE GUESTS; YOUNG MEN'S CLASS TO ENTERTAIN

Among the activities of the Methodist church this week are three that emphasized especially the social side of life.

Mrs. C. W. Ingledue and Mrs. C. W. Spickerman entertained the ladies of the Sisterhood Class of the First Methodist church yesterday afternoon at Mrs. Ingledue's home, 411 North Central avenue.

There was a short business session and the rest of the afternoon was devoted to a social good time. Saxophone solos by Miss Helen Ingledue accompanied on the piano by her sister, Miss Doris, were a pleasant feature of the entertainment. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Last evening young people of the Intermediate League had a merry time in the church parlors; for what's more fun than a taffy pull? And while some of the girls were cooking the candy in the kitchen the rest of the party beguiled the time with merry games.

After the taffy was properly pulled and twisted, came the last and by no means least pleasure of the evening; the eating of it.

Young Men's Business Class

This evening the Young Men's Business class, of which E. A. Bachtel is president, are entertaining the ladies of the J. O. C. class with a social and banquet in the chuch parlors. Most of the guests are the wives of the hosts, and they consider it a rather novel situation, rather a reversal of the usual order of things, that their husbands should be responsible for the dinner preparations, while they have the joy of sitting down to a meal whose menu they do not know beforehand, and the washing of whose dishes afterward concerns them not.

BODY IS FOUND

J. H. REDMAN IS DISCOVERED DEAD IN HIS ROOM SHORTLY BEFORE NOON TODAY

The body of J. H. Redman, aged about 60, formerly employed in a local grocery store and well known in Glendale, was found shortly before noon today in his room at 610-A East Broadway.

Noticing he had been missing for a day or so, Redman's friends informed the police and the door to his room was broken open. The body was taken to the parlors of Pulliam & Kiefer, and the police made an inquiry and it was shown that heart failure was the cause of death.

Mr. Redmond leaves a son who is principal of the Polytechnic High School in Oakland.

Patrolman Is Wounded

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 14—In a running fight today between two policemen and four bandits, Patrolman V. L. Stevens was shot and probably fatally wounded and, it is believed, at least one of the bandits was shot. Stevens' recovery is thought to be doubtful.

PROPOSES CHANGE

JOHN ROBERT WHITE WOULD DO AWAY WITH PATRONAGE IN STATE LEGISLATURE

A dispatch from Sacramento says that John Robert White of Glendale, assemblyman from the sixty-first district, dropped a large bombshell among the legislators and then stood to one side and watched the effects of the explosion.

Assemblyman White's bombshell was to the effect that all legislative patronage be abolished.

Naturally, the politicians and a number on the state's payroll are opposed to the move. The assemblyman proposes the transfer of a suitable clerical force for the legislature from the ranks of attaches in state offices, and from the waiting list of the civil service board. He states that this would give the legislature more efficient help and do away with much of the petty politics that impedes the opening days of the session.

Assmblyman White stated that he believes the present force of legislative attaches is efficient, but said the needless employes were too numerous and the whole system out of date. He is preparing a constitutional amendment carrying out his ideas.

KENSINGTON CLUB

MRS. LILLIAN PECKHAM GIVES PLEASING AFTERNOON FOR OVER FORTY MEMBERS

The Kensington club met with Mrs. Lillian Peckham, 615 North Central avenue, Wednesday afternoon. More than forty members were present, also several visitors. Considerable fancy work was done, and a delightful program enjoyed.

There was a musical contest, in which Mrs. Winona Crawford played a bar or two of several popular melodies, the other members then guessing the name of each selection. Mrs. Thomas D. Watson won by making the most correct guesses.

Mrs. H. R. Boyer contributed several piano selections, which were greatly enjoyed. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

DEAD AND BURIED

COMMERCIAL STREET WORK IS FINALLY AND OFFICIALLY STOPPED BY TRUSTEES

The proposed improvement of Commercial street was killed a week ago last night at the meeting of the board of city trustees. It was buried at the board's meeting last night—but not unanimously.

A week ago, after a demonstration by more than 200 residents of the proposed assessment district, the trustees brought up for consideration an ordinance ordering the work done. Trustees Bartlett and Henry voted for it. Trustees Robinson and Stephenson voted against. Hartley Shaw had, just previously, resigned to become city attorney. That made a tie vote. Under the rules, the ordinance failed of adoption. But, as was explained at the time, that did not prevent it from being brought up at some future date.

Then A. H. Lapham, known to be opposed to the Commercial street plan, was appointed to fill the vacancy on the board and last night he was present to sit for the first time, at a complete session.

Trustee Robinson last night moved that an ordinance ordering the abandoning of the Commercial street improvement, introduced last September, be adopted.

Proceedings Are Now Over

Trustees Lapham, Stephenson and Robinson voted for the ordinance and Trustees Bartlett and Henry voted against it. So, as the result of this vote, the proposed improvement of Commercial street is both killed and buried—unless it be revived by entirely new proceedings.

During the discussion, Trustee Henry suggested that the corner at Broadway and Central should be rounded and Trustee Lapham made the statement that he believed the people of that section of the city favored that improvement and that it would soon come before the board for action.

INSTALL LIGHTS

SEVERAL HOMES ARE SERVED RECENTLY, ACCORDING TO DEPARTMENT REPORTS

Lights have been installed, the city's public service department reports, in the following houses approaching completion:

RUSS PLAN THREE MILITARY CAMPAIGNS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Jan. 14.—Three military campaigns, one of them affecting Great Britain directly, have been under consideration by the Russian government, according to reports today to the British foreign office. The three possible theatres outlined by an official of the foreign office are the Baltic states, through Roumania to Constantinople, or through the Caucasus to India. Accustomed to war scares which never materialized, the foreign office investigated carefully after the first reports of bolshevik plans emanated from Paris. It was found an extensive movement has been started for the Baltic drive to reclaim the prewar Russian lines.

HOMES OF MILLIONAIRES UNDER GUARD

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Public buildings and residences of millionaires were guarded by special details of police today as a result of a warning, presumably from Washington, that anarchists planned bomb outrages here. The stock exchange, the Rockefeller and Vanderbilt mansions, St. Patrick's cathedral, police headquarters, the Grand Central terminal, principal hotels and power stations were among those under guard.

CITY MARSHAL IS DEAD OF HIS WOUNDS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

REDDING, Cal., Jan. 14.—City Marshal John Rieves, who was shot Sunday by two men whom he surprised while they were robbing a merchant's home, died shortly before eleven o'clock this morning. He had been wounded twice. The men accused of the shooting are held at the Oroville jail where they were taken as a precautionary measure on account of high feeling in Redding.

PLAN ORDINANCE

CITY ZONING COMMITTEE IN SESSION TO PASS UPON PROPOSED DRAFT

The zoning committee met in regular session yesterday afternoon at the city hall for the first time since the holiday season.

The principal business of the afternoon was the consideration of a tentative draft of a zoning ordinance embodying points considered thus far to the character of buildings to be allowed in the different zones, not to its districting as to height of buildings, or as to the area of the lot that might be occupied by buildings thereon.

The zoning committee expects to complete the draft of this proposed ordinance at its meeting next Wednesday, and to present it to the board of trustees at their meeting next Thursday evening.

CHURCH BANQUET

Enthusiasm and cordiality were the keynotes of the handsomely appointed banquet with which the Woman's Guild entertained the communicants of St. Mark's church and their families last evening in the Guild hall.

More than one hundred guests enjoyed the hospitality of the Guild, and partook of the pleasures of the evening. Among them were many newcomers to the parish.

Pepper boughs, red carnations and asparagus ferns carried out the chcery red and green color motif chosen by Mrs. Ernest Parker and her table committee, and the excellent menu was as pleasing to the taste as the table appointments were to the eye.

Hamilton, LeRoy Bosserman, Wells, John Trotter, and Mrs. Holbrook, the new president of the Guild, Mrs. Phillip Bernais, superintendent of the Sunday school, Mrs. Squires, of the Ladies' Auxiliary, and Mrs. LeRoy Bosserman, who took the silver offering.

Mr. Langton, for the past thirty-three years, has been manufacturing gun stocks for the government. The guests were Mrs. S. Prager of Hollywood and Mrs. L. F. Lindquist and daughters of Warrensburg, Missouri. Both Mrs. Prager and Mrs. Lindquist are daughters of Mr. Langton.

The Evening News' new and renewal subscriptions are coming in from all parts of Glendale without solicitation.

The Evening News is truly the people's paper and to the people belong the credit of the unbounded success of the community daily. The number of papers printed daily is 1,900. The printed list of names of subscribers is open for the inspection of bona fide advertisers. The papers are distributed to various parts of the city by twelve carrier boys and the average daily counter sales are 100 copies.

Church Holds Supper

Presbyterian Sunday school teachers and officers to the number of twenty-five enjoyed supper together last evening in the parlors of the church.

The Ladies' Aid, under the direction of Mrs. J. J. Davis, prepared the appetizing meal, and had charge of the appointments of the pretty tables, decorated with marigolds "rich and yellow."

Following the supper came the quarterly conference, which was attended by one hundred or more, interested in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. McMillan, field representative of Presbyterian Sunday school work in southern California, gave the address of the evening. The meeting also marked the observance of Sunday school night of the pre-communion week.

Registering of Voters

Langdon, has been ordered back to Manila, it was announced here today. No reason for the recall was given.

Full Page Advertisement

Readers of The Evening News will, no doubt, show considerable interest in the full page advertisement of the Page-Trice Furniture company, 306-308 East Broadway, appearing in this issue. The company is displaying real metropolitan spirit in taking a full page in which to present its bargains to the community and, too, this paper is co-operating with the company by providing the attractive illustrations that appear in the advertisement. A furniture store in Glendale that uses a full page advertisement and a newspaper that provides a "cut" service for advertisers—both are another bit of evidence of Glendale's growth.

Mercedes Misses a Matinee

MERCEDES VALLEJO
1611 Curzon Ave., Hollywood, Calif.

Do you remember your first matinee? Back in those happy childhood days when the tinseled glory of the theatre with its wonderful romance, made an afternoon at the matinee a never-to-be-forgotten event—a fond memory to linger throughout the years?

To you nothing could ever take the place of those delightful glimpses of a new and fascinating world.

With these long hidden memories in mind, perhaps you can appreciate just what it means for any little girl to miss a performance of such a gorgeous spectacle as Chu Chin Chow. And yet there was one little girl who did forego the pleasures of a matinee at this show—and she did it because she preferred to take her music lesson!

Imagine any child really finding more pleasure in a mere music lesson than in a matinee!

Impossible!

Perhaps it would have been impossible in your youthful days, but today there is a music course that does make the language of music even more wonderful than a matinee, however bizarre or splendid.

When Mercedes Vallejo made her decision in favor of her music lesson it was not because she did not like the theatre. She is just as fond of the theatre as you were when you were a youngster. Neither is she a musical prodigy. She is just a normal, intelligent little girl who has found in this new musical method that beauty which is the very soul of music.

Read what her mother says:

"Mr. Vallejo and I wish to express our appreciation of the progress being made by our daughter, Mercedes, in her music. Her interest in it is such that it is never necessary to remind her to practice. She does this conscientiously every day in spite of the fact that with her school work she has very little time left for recreation.

"The study of Harmony, which for me was always very difficult, taught as it was in an entirely separate course, is for her much easier and more interesting, as it is made a part of her weekly lessons and is closely associated with them.

"We feel that her progress is very satisfactory and we wish to thank you for your personal interest in her and also for the many advantages you have given her and the other pupils in the way of complimentary tickets to the various concerts given by the finest musicians. I really do not see how you can do as much considering your reasonable tuition.

"Hoping that the people of Hollywood will show their appreciation of the efforts you are making in behalf of their children by their continued patronage, I remain your sincere well-wisher,

"Mrs. E. J. Vallejo."

Of course children will practice without persuasion—but they must be given an insight into the real beauties and grandeur of this soul-language. They must know and appreciate the interpretative character of music.

Music is a language whose beauty no master of words has ever been able to describe—an art so complete within itself that it defies the skill of the greatest writers of all time. It is just as impossible to describe the music without describing it in music as it is to describe French without describing it in French,—and perhaps even a bit more impossible, for music does not depict scenes, but moods.

To the child, given the proper instruction, there is all of the fanciful fantastic expressions in music that there would be in a fairy story if it were really true.

Unfortunately it is given to very few to really encounter these vivid realistic moods, because there are so few schools that have found the methods which can convey these moods to the human mind.

However, there is such a school in this city.

The Rector Institute of Music Study has proved to hundreds of parents that their methods are different. It is these methods which have made little girls such as Mercedes realize—yes, actually see and feel the magic power of music. It has brought them into a world—a new world peopled with strange visions. Children who are encountering such marvels every day in their music lessons do not have to be coaxed to practice—to them music is a spontaneous expression that demands their attenttion because it fills a desire, an unexpressable longing that is within every human soul.

The Rector Institute not only provides a thorough and complete musical course at a very small cost—but it also places at the disposal of its students many advantages not ordinarily made a part of most music courses.

Throughout the season the Rector Students are given the opportunity of hearing the recitals of many of the famous musicians who visit Los Angeles, and this without any cost to the students.

It is an organization of the finest character and having instructors of unusual qualifications—in fact it is the one musical institution which gives its patrons an unqualified guarantee as to both its methods and its instructors.

Further information concerning this remarkable music course can be obtained at our studios in Glendale, located at THE PEARL KELLER STUDIO BUILDING, 109-A North Brand boulevard. Phone Glendale 1337.

Church Night Success

Making Wednesday night of each week "Church Night," a plan started more than two years ago in Central Christian church at the suggestion of the pastor, Rev. Clifford A. Cole, has proven very successful and the plan has been adopted in many other churches in southern California with the very best of results. The suppers, served at 6, at a merely nominal price, are for the promotion of fellowship among the members and to get acquainted with others who may wish to attend.

These suppers are prepared by a different committee each month. The regular attendance has grown to between seventy and eighty. After the supper, Bible study is held from 7 to 8 and then half an hour of prayer meeting. All the meetings, as well as the supper, were well attended this week and several committee meetings were held also at the close of the evening.

Many Attend Opening

Wednesday was one of the coldest and most disagreeable days of the winter, a day not conducive to a successful spring millinery opening, but Paul Hoffman of Hoffman's Millinery, corner Broadway and Maryland, says that a large number of ladies responded to his invitation extended through the columns of The Evening News and attended his opening, the crowd far exceeding his expectations.

Mr. Hoffman has a large and very attractive display of spring hats made especially for the opening. He stated that he realizes that if he expects the patronage of Glendale women he must give them a wide selection, and as good styles and values as they can get in Los Angeles stores and that already the women of Glendale seem to be favorably impressed with his stock and his policy. Mr. Hoffman conducts two millinery stores in Los Angeles, but he has been a resident of Glendale for some time. He is making some attractive prices on both winter and spring millinery in the display columns of this paper.

Food Prices Downward

A study of the many grocery ads in this issue of The Evening News reveals the fact that many food commodities are getting down to the pre-war level. Sugar, potatoes, rice, beans and flour, all staples, seem to be taking the lead in this downward trend.

It is interesting to note in this connection that, according to estimates of the New York federal reserve bank potatoes have made the greatest decline in price the past year of any commodity, 71.7 per cent. Sugar declined 54.5 per cent.

Educator To Speak

The Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations has arranged for a series of lectures in the high school auditorium on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the next three weeks. Dr. John T. Miller, educator, and editor of "Character Builder" will deliver the lectures, which are on subjects vital to every parent of a schoolboy or schoolgirl, and to every teacher. There should, and doubtless will be, a large attendance.

New Meat Market

David Donwell, who has been located in Sherman for the past year, but who prior to that was in the meat business in Chicago, will tomorrow open his new market at 123 North Glendale avenue, which is midway between Broadway and Wilson avenue. Mr. Donwell seems to be a "live wire" and judging from the prices published in his ad today he is going after big business.

MARION, Ohio, Jan. 14—Some way of escaping from the eleventh-hour rush of job hunters who are now sweeping down upon him was sought by President-elect Harding today. PLEDGE SERVICE

PROPOSED ASSOCIATES UPON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BOARD IN MEETING

Four of the five proposed associate directors of the Greater Glendale Chamber of Commerce, as proposed in the reorganization plans of the Citizens' Committee, have approved the new feature and pledged their service and support.

These include Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club; Mrs. John Robert White, president of the Parent-Teachers' Associations Federation; Mrs. E. D. Yard, president of the Welfare Council, and Dr. J. E. Eckles, city health officer. They met in joint session Wednesday with the Citizens' Committee, where the proposal to link all civic forces through the Chamber of Commerce directorate was discussed at length. Dwight W. Stephenson, president of the board of trustees, could not be present, but it is proposed that he shall also be an associate director.

To Prevent Duplication

It is proposed that associate directors will be appointed by the elected board of the Chamber of Commerce, to serve during their incumbency of office in the organizations they represent. This will not imply any financial obligation on the part of their organizations, nor will it in any way curtail or modify the usual work of such bodies, other than that through the joint board an effort will be made to prevent duplication of work and to harmonize the programs of all the different bodies, the committee declares.

BOYS ARE CAUGHT

FIVE YOUTHS ARE IN COURT WITH THEIR PARENTS TO HEAR JUDGE'S WARNING

Mrs. Eva Cunningham, 114 North Orange, reported to police headquarters last evening that some boys were smoking in her garage. A raid was made by the police and five boys, ranging in age from 13 to 17 years, were found gambling with cards, the sum of 59 cents being in the "kitty." Three of the boys were smoking cigarettes, also. All were commanded to appear before Judge Lowe this morning at 9, accompanied by their parents or guardians. This was done and the judge, after finding out where the cigarettes had been purchased, dismissed the boys, putting them on their honor for future good behavior and instructing the parents to see that his orders were carried out. This, said the judge, he thought was better than making it a matter of public record, since it was a first offence.

Traffic Violators in Court

Eighteen violators of the traffic laws were before Judge Lowe on Monday and between twenty-five and thirty this morning. Th city exchequer was considerably enriched by the fines imposed.

Youth Is Not Hanged

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Jan. 14—Simon Ruiz was not hanged today. After having remained steadfast for a week in his determination not to interfere with the execution of the 17-year-old boy for the murder of John Miller in San Bernardino county, Governor Stevens granted a two weeks' reprieve. The Governor was said to have acted when his mail brought him a mass of last-minute appeals, letters and petitions in Ruiz' behalf.

WEST FRANKFORD, Ill., Jan. 14—Forty miners were rescued today from the fume-filled shaft, No. 8 mine, of the Old Ben Coal corporation near here, following a terrific gas explosion. Ten men, seriously injured, were taken to hospitals. Physicians said two of these probably will not live.

FORM RADIO CLUB

BOYS OF HIGH SCHOOL HAVE ORGANIZATION; APPARATUS IS BEING INSTALLED

Wednesday night a number of high school boys interested in wireless met at the building and organized the Glendale Radio club. There were nine charter members:

Horace McRae, Willard Roberts, Thomas Wood, James Smith, Frank Thompson, Charles Witkowski, Robert Lindsay, Eugene Baron and Stanley Roycroft.

Prof. Alfred Cookman met with the boys and assisted them in starting their organization. He was chosen as official advisor of the club. Horace McRae was elected president; Thomas Wood, vice president; Robert Lindsay, secretary treasurer; Charles Witkowski, sergeant at arms. Robert Lindsay is head radio operator and James Smith social chairman. The club meets the first, third and fifth Monday nights.

Some of the boys have been operators for years and spend most of their spare time "listening in" for news that is constantly flying about. They have heard other amateurs as well as regular operators as far off as Vancouver, Salt Lake City and points in New Mexico. They have also heard many conversations by wireless telephone, the most notable of which was one between Mr. Wrigley, at his Catalina Island home, and a secretary in his Chicago office.

Poles Are Already in Place

President Horace McRae says:

"The poles for the aerial at the high school are already in place and it will not be long until everything is in running order. We will learn a lot more about wireless ourselves, but one of our aims will be to help other boys get a start."

The dues of the club are 10 cents a month. For the present only high school boys with radio outfits are eligible to membership.

BOOKS RELEASED

ADULT DEPARTMENT OF CITY LIBRARY IS GIVEN SOME NEW READING MATTER

"The Works of Guy De Maupassant," including "The Window" and other short stories.

"Yvette" and other short stories by Guy De Maupassant, translated by Mrs. John Galsworthy.

"By-Paths in Sicily," by Eliza Putnam Heaton, with photographic illustrations.

"James Russell Lowell," by Ferris Greenslet.

"In Darkest Africa, or The Quest, Rescue and Retreat of Emin, Governor of Equatoria," by Henry M. Stanley.

ESCAPES DAMAGE

COLD SPELL DOES NOT CAUSE ANY DAMAGE TO FRUIT IN GLENDALE, IS REPORT

The cold weather of the past few nights has caused considerable uneasiness in regard to the fruit, more particularly oranges. Reports from the citrus districts are to the effect that smudging prevented loss there, but smudging is impossible where there are only a few trees, as is the case in many Glendale yards.

But since the fatal freeze of 1913, the damage from this cause in Glendale has been negligible and many trees escaped damage even then. No reports of frozen oranges this week have been heard so far, so it is thought all the fruit escaped damage.

Alaska Indians in the Copper river district face starvation because the canneries net the salmon at the mouth of the rivers. Salmon for the Alaskan natives is absolutely necessary, not only as food for themselves, but for their dogs.

The World Today

By D. H. SMITH
Manager Brand Boulevard Branch, Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank

D.H.Smith

Seven more days, including today, remain of the Y. M. C. A. annual budget drive. Mr. Neil Locke, County Secretary, is in general charge of the campaign and welcomes the opportunity of discussing the work of the Y. M. C. A. in Glendale and in the County. Closer investigation of the methods and merits of the work done is invited.

The County department of the Y. M. C. A. has developed a type of community work which is now operating in Glendale and the adjacent communities in which neither large buildings nor costly equipment are necessary, the available resources of a community such as schools, halls, churches and homes are used as meeting places.

The "ganging" instinct prevalent in all boy life is capitalized. The "gang" is made the nucleus of self governing groups for which leadership of proven character and ability is discovered by a trained executive and a comprehensive program provided which coordinates all phases of the boy's life.

This plan gives each community in the county access to the best methods and principles of work with boys. It presents a program that gains and maintains the interest of boys and young men. It develops leadership of the highest and most efficient type. It develops a preparedness which insures against the aggressions of evil. It makes boys physically fit, mentally alert, and morally straight.

* * * *

Campaigns of cleanliness, physical, mental and moral; conferences, camps, conventions, community gatherings, educational trips and talks, hikes, wholesome recreation, discussion groups applying the principles as found in the study of the life of Christ and other character building activities are promoted.

Boy-time's the one time
Of life—you'll find it so—
When every seed of every kind
Is almost sure to grow.
Boy-time's the wise time
To winnow out the rest,
And only sow the seeds that bear
The harvest God likes best!

Before the inauguration of the present drive, one hundred and fifty boys in this district and more than a thousand throughout the County were participating in these character kindling influences.

PUBLISH CHARTER

TRUSTEES ORDER PUBLICATION OF PROPOSED MEASURE AS IS PROVIDED BY LAW

Hartley Shaw, city attorney, at the meeting of the board of city trustees last night, gave a legal opinion to the board as to the method of procedure relative to the proposed city charter which is now on file.

City Attorney Shaw stated that the law provides the board must cause the publication of the proposed charter in full in the city official newspaper within fifteen days from the date of the filing of the document, one publication being necessary. Further, the board must also cause to be printed within fifteen days a number of pamphlets containing the proposed charter in full, these to be furnished free by the city clerk to all who ask for them, a notice to that effect to be published up to the date of election.

To Be Published Next Week

The proposed charter was filed on January 12 and the city attorney held the law's requirements must be observed before January 27. The charter will appear in full in The Evening News on Thursday of next week.

Bert P. Woodard, chairman of the board of freeholders, drafters of the proposed charter, and G. W. Woodberry, a member of the board, were present at the trustees' meeting last night.

The resolution ordering the publication of the proposed charter was offered by Trustee Bartlett, it was seconded by Trustee Henry and unanimously passed.

The date when the voters of the city will pass on the proposed charter is March 29.

FOR NEAR EAST

MASS MEETING TO BE HELD IN GLENDALE ON SUNDAY; DR. WIRT IS SPEAKER

A mass meeting will be held in the First Methodist church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of presenting an appeal for relief for needy people in the Near East.

Dr. Loyal Lincoln Wirt, a native of Michigan, will give the principal address and the public is invited, irrespective of religious affiliations, states the committee.

Dr. Wirt, in 1915, was a war correspondent in Italy, France, Belgium and England for the Boston Herald. In 1918 he was a member of the Red Cross publicity division and visited the trenches. In 1919 he was given a chain of relief stations stretching from Syrian ports eastward into Mesopotamia, under the direction of the American committee for relief of the Near East.

LODGE GIVES AID

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS TAKE UP COLLECTION TO BUY ORGAN FOR CHAPEL

At the last meeting of Glendale Council, No. 1920, Knighs of Columbus, Peter L. Ferry brought to the attention of the lodge the fact that the Italian sisters conducting the orphanage at Burbank needed an organ for their new chapel.

Mr. Ferry suggested that a collection be taken in the lodge to help pay for this organ. This suggestion was acted upon immediately, and the amount collected was found to be sufficient to fully pay for the organ. The instrument was purchased this week and sent as a gift from the council to the orphanage.

SOCIAL GATHERING TO TAKE PLACE IN LOS ANGELES ON JANUARY 20

Residents of Glendale who came from Missouri—and Missourians who happen to be visiting in this city—are interested in the social and get-together meeting of Missourians to be held at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium in Los Angeles on Thursday night, January 20.

Charles E. Stokes, president of the Los Angeles County Missourian association, states that there will be a good program presented and that plans for the centennial celebration to be held next summer will be discussed.

TREES IN STREET

TRUSTEES, BY MAJORITY VOTE, ORDERS REMOVAL OF ALL GROWTHS AS DANGEROUS

asserted the motion made by Trustee Henry was too sweeping.

"Take them all out. The single little red light on the trees at night is no protection," stated Robinson. "The city is growing too fast to have trees in the middle of its streets; this is no longer a country town. Besides, there is liable to be a serious accident any night and the city would be in for a big damage suit."

T. W. Watson, city manager, stated that he believed some of the trees should be taken out and it was suggested that the matter go over for investigation. But both Henry and Robinson insisted upon action at once.

The motion provides the board of public works shall remove the trees and the concrete walls about them.

After adjournment of the trustees' meeting some city officials predicted that the ordered removal would cause a number of protests to be made and that at the next meeting of the board of modern version of "Woodman, Spare That Tree," would be enacted.

work, Walter J. Hibbert; master-at-arms, M. J. Edwards; inner guard, Sam Brown; outer guard, R. E. Frey.

For Van Nuys Lodge the new officers are: Chancellor commander, John Johnson; vice-chancellor, W. H. Deiter; prelate, S. J. Woody; master of work, F. L. Richardson; keeper of records and seal, Jas. R. Goldsworthy; master of finance, R. G. Johnson; master of exchequer, Stephen O'Hara; master-at-arms, J. H. Powell; inner guard, Geo. Drake, Jr.; outer guard, Ed Paggi, Jr.

Banquet and Addresses

After the usual proclamation was made that the officers of both lodges were duly installed, all those present were ushered into the banquet hall under the auspices of the Pythian Sisters.

During the course of the banquet the good fellowship and friendly relations existing between the local and Van Nuys lodges and the Sisters was increased.

Speeches were made by the newly-elected officers, Grand Prelate Galloway, and many others.

The Pythian Sisters were "somewhat short on speech, but long on hospitality," according to the report of the chairman of the press committee of Glendale Lodge, No. 331.

A short, speechless specialty was put on by Past Chancellor Hibbert and Past Chief Haynes, which received much applause. The Van Nuys boys said they sure did enjoy the cake.

The feature of the evening was the eloquent and persuasive address of Hon. George J. Galloway, candidate for Grand Lodge honors. His topic was "The Board of Relief."

Finally it was noticed with reluctance that the end of a perfect evening had arrived, and everyone agreed that a return visit to Van Nuys Lodge would be in order in the near future.

CITY'S GROWTH

ABOUT 100 FAMILIES COMING TO GLENDALE EACH MONTH SO FIGURES SHOW

No city in southern California has made a healthier, more substantial growth than has Glendale. The building of new residences and business houses has really been phenomenal and the fact that all these have been occupied as soon as completed and that there is an insistent demand for more, shows that the city's condition is absolutely sound.

The growth in population of 3620 in less than two years and the fact that every day sees further additions to our citizenship, shows the drawing power of Glendale's many attractions.

While the new city directory gives the population at 15,627, it is undoubtedly in excess of 16,000 at this time, as the records of the public service department show the addition of close to 100 families a month and less than a fourth of that number moving away. The Evening News office is still beseiged with anxious inquirers for places to rent, showing that many other families are desirous of locating here.

And never in the city's history have general business conditions seemed more satisfactory than now. Every business room in the city is occupied and there are many demands for more space. There have been additions in many lines of business and other merchants are desirous of locating here. Abundant stocks of merchandise are carried and prices compare very favorably with those in other cities.

SET NEW RECORD

REPORT FROM SECRETARY OF STATE SHOWS NEW FIGURES FOR YEAR OF 1920

A report issued by Secretary of State Jordan shows the receipts of his office for 1920 broke all records. They totaled $1,185,290.58, as compared with $949,582.71 in 1919.

The bulk of the receipts, or $853,437.65, came from the corporation license tax, while the sum of $325,952.93 was derived by the state through corporation filing fees. Candidates for offices contributed $5900 in fees.

Receipts for the previous year were divided as follows:

From corporation license tax, $767,775.12, and from corporation filing fees, $181,807.59.

TOTAL OF 234 NEW TELEPHONE CONNECTIONS MADE IN DECMBER

Record for Month Passes That Made One Year Ago by 173; Names, Addresses, Numbers

During the month of December, 1919, there was a total of sixty-one new telephone connections made in the city of Glendale.

During the month of December, 1920, there was a total of 234 new telephone connections made in the city of Glendale.

One hundred and seventy-three more new telephone connections made during last December than were made during the same month a year ago—just another bit of evidence showing Glendale's remarkable growth.

In November, 1919, there were sixty-two connections made by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company in this city; in November, 1920, the total was about 120. But last December was the record-breaker with its total of 234.

The Evening News presents herewith a complete list of the December connections, giving name, address and phone number. The list may be cut out by telephone users and kept as a reference. Here's the list:

A Vegetarian Diet

"The health of the whole body is tempered in the labratory of the stomach."

Believing that these words, which Cervantes put into the mouth of Don Quixote, are true, the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital has established a dietetic regimen which is one of the chief features in our program of health building.

Our diet system is not based on fads or guesswork, but is the result of nearly half a century of scientific research. We exclude meats, animal fats, tea and coffee, irritating condiments and all articles of food known to be unwholesome, indigestible or productive of disease.

But our bill of fare is surprisingly varied and appetizing and is enjoyed alike by patients and others who patronize our dining room which is open to the public.

GREAT INCREASE

STATE CORPORATION BUREAU'S BUSINESS FOR YEAR 1920 SHOWS SPEEDY GROWTH

During the past two years the State Corporation department, in which is vested the administration of the corporate securities, or blue-sky law, has handled a greater number of applications from corporations petitioning for authority to issue securities than in the four years preceding, according to the department's third biennial report, submitted to Governor Stephens.

During the past two years the people of California have had a wide range for selection of their investments," the report said. "It is a fact, which may be easily substantiated, that there have been no disastrous failures involving repudiation of bonds authorized by the department."

The report said that between September 1, 1918, and September 1, 1920, companies having an aggregate authorized capital stock of $1,261,099,122 made applications to the department. Formal orders issued affecting the issues of securities numbered 8451.

Daily Average Is Given

Companies were permitted to issue stock having an aggregate par value of $754,731,321, bonds having an aggregate face value of $60,025,375 and other securities of the face value of $12,077,948, the report added. This made an average of more than $500,000 per day for the period.

Within the biennial period the commissioner has required deposit in escrow of $207,802,920 aggregate par value of the shares he has authorized to be issued. Of this amount $7,165,634 aggregate par value was subsequently released when it appeared that the company, as a going concern, has established a value for its shares and that a prospective purchaser was unlikely to be defrauded.

Makes Kiss Analysis

If you think the French are romantic, you are due for a shock from Prof. Edouard Malespine. He is conducting a scientific analysis of the kiss. That sometimes delightful indoor sport wasn't relished a bit by American doughboys when they suffered French generals to osculate their cheeks in exchange for a trifle of metal and a bit of ribbon. But the women—American, French, English, Irish, Esquimau—the women like it.

No photographs are published with the news dispatches concerning Professor Malespine, so it is hard to say whether he has many subjects in his laboratory. But certainly he has compiled some important-looking statistics.

One of the things the professor wants to determine is the horse-power of the average kiss. Yes, he puts it just that way—the horse-power. Most folk thought science had gone far enough in insisting on the hygienic kiss. But horse-power! As well measure the current in the electric shock the first kiss gives, or compute the miles that every moonbeam on a summer's night has traveled ere it shines upon a pair of lovers.

"Kissing remains in the last analysis plain, barbarous nature," the professor declares. Well, let it go at that. If kissing is barbarous, who would be civilized?

ONE OF LARGEST LIONS

MURPHYS, Stanislaus County, Cal., Jan. 14—What is declared to be one of the largest California mountain lions ever killed in the state was killed this week by Bibbet Morales at the head of the Utica company's ditch on the Stanislaus. The animal measured ten feet from tip to tip.

Bibbet's dog who aided in bagging the animal was considerably injured in the battle, although a veteran in the bagging of wild animals.

GASOLINE FROM ALASKA WELLS

JUNEAU, Alaska, Jan. 14—Gasoline from Alaskan wells will be placed on the market here during the coming summer months, according to Nathaniel Green, manager of the Cordova Electric Light company, who was in Juneau recently.

Gasoline and distillate oil are now being supplied Cordova by wells in the Katalla fields, and new wells are being added so that the market will be extended, he said.

"RED CROSS NURSE" SIREN

CHICAGO—Samuel Altman met a pretty "Red Cross nurse." She told him she was resting a bit after her hard experience in France, so he invited her to have luncheon with him. He further helped her forget the horrors of war by taking her to a theatre. In return she invited him to her home. There he met two men armed with pistols. Several hours later the landlady at the house heard him groaning and found him tied to a bedpost and gagged. The "nurse" and her companions had relieved him of a diamond ring worth $150, a diamond scarfpin worth $100, and considerable cash, but they had overlooked $75 tucked in his hatband.

WOULD TEACH ESPERANTO NOW

GENEVA—A resolution demanding that Esperanto be taught in public schools was introduced in the assembly. The conflict which has arisen over the official languages of the league resulted in bringing Esperanto before the assembly as a candidate for official recognition, and the resolution was in line with this movement.

VALUE OF STOCK

TOTAL OF $25,000,000 IS PUT AS ESTIMATE OF CATTLE AND HORSES IN STATE

Six million head of cattle, sheep, hogs, horses and mules in California have a total value of $250,000,000, according to the estimate of Dr. J. P. Iverson, head of the live-stock division of the State Department of Agriculture.

The total investment represented in the live-stock industry of the state, Dr. Iverson says, is three times the quarter-billion figure, or $750,000,000. The figures for cattle include those for both beef and dairy animals, and the estimate for dairy products alone is $75,000,000 in the year just closed.

"California is fast forging to the front in the live-stock industry," says Iverson. "The dairy products are growing rapidly, and the beef cattle statistics show steadily increasing gains. Hogs and sheep as well are making great strides ahead.

"Horses and mules are increasing, although they are being outdistanced by the other animals because of the lessened demand brought about by the truck, tractor and passenger car."

Government Stops Plan

SAN FRANCISCO—Jose Delallave hailing from across the Rio Grande is like a more famous compatriot "on the horns of dilemma," only this time it isn't a bull but a gunboat.

Dellallave arrived in this city with a large unearned increment which he didn't know what to do with. Being a youth of romantic ideas he decided to buy something big and worthwhile. Wandering along the San Francisco waterfront, he saw the Marblehead, a broken-down American gunboat. Ah, this was what he wanted. Thus should be the nucleus of a merchant marine for Mexico. He soon made arrangements with a ship broker and purchased the ship receiving a bona fide bill of sale.

With the remainder of his money he bought paint, provisions and hired a crew; renaming the ship Agua Prieta. Then he started for Mexico; but local federal officials stepped in then and resurrected a law which says that certain things must have a license from the state department before they may be exported to Mexico. In this list are gunboats. Dellallave protested that he bought it for a merchant marine and therefore it became a merchant ship, but the local custom officials failed to see the point; so Dellallave sits on the horns of dilemma while Washington works out some solution of giving him its official stamp to his efforts for starting Mexico's merchant marine.

SMUGGLES THEM

STOWAWAY SYNDICATE IS SAID TO BE BRINGING NUMBERS OF FOREIGNERS HERE

NEW YORK—Acting Commissioner of Immigration Frederick A. Wallis has discovered in operation the greatest stowaway syndicate ever known. And it is his belief that since the ban on immigration during the war hundreds of dangerous foreigners have smuggled their way into this country through two channels—as stowaways and as sailors on vessels coming into New York.

The most alarming evidence of its operation came recently with the trip made to this country by the ship President Wilson. Starting from Greece, the officers of the ship discovered sixteen stowaways.

They were put off at the first port where the vessel stopped. Before the ship was well under way, however, eighteen more were discovered. These were put off at the next port. When the boat was nearing New York harbor two stowaways jumped overboard. The body of one was found and the other managed to reach one of the islands in the harbor.

Pay Members of Crews, Is Claim

This stowaway told Wallis that the syndicate is in operation in nearly every port out of which vessels sail for this country. He said that the stowaways pay members of the crew $40 apiece for keeping quiet about them and then smuggle their way into this country when the ship arrives.

"If you will go to the President Wilson," said he, "you will find twelve more stowaways still there."

Wallis found the twelve and sent them to Ellis Island to be held for deportation. While there they sent word to the "squealer" that his heart would be cut out when they caught him in Italy. They will have no chance to do this, however, for the stowaway, after a year spent in work at Ellis Island is to be given a chance to enter this country on parole.

"Something must be done to stop this stowaway practice," says Wallis. "A stowaway of this character is the worst sort of immigrant, for nine times out of ten he is a criminal who cannot obtain a passport."

Stumble On Knowledge

Antaeus, the giant of Libya, was the first world's champion wrestler. He liked the sport so well that he compelled all strangers who sought to pass through his country to meet him in an unroped arena. He prospered; with the skulls of his victims he built a temple. One day, however, the Greek Hercules lifted Antaeus from his feet and crushed him to death.

Antaeus may have been accounted a wise man. But if he had known as much as Johnny Coulon, once a boxing champion of renown, he might have added the head of Hercules to his collection. Coulon recently gave illustrations of his ability to defy the law of gravitation before bewildered Paris audiences. Powerful men sought to lift him from his feet and couldn't. Coulon rested his hands lightly upon his adversary and assumed a knowing look. Scientists came, marveled.

Coulon had placed a finger upon a certain nerve in the neck of his opponent and the lifter was helpless. He also placed his fingers upon a great truth: That, despite our marvelous progress in research, there are a great many simple little things we do not know.

Turned Out To Hunt

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—Grand Rapids was engaged in a widespread hunt for diamonds, pearls and other precious gems recently.

It started when detectives searching the rooms occupied by Jack Doane of New York and Clarence Berg of Chicago found rubies, pearls, diamonds and emeralds worth several thousand dollars. Later additional finds were made when the contents of cold cream jars found in the rooms was melted. The cold cream assayed thousands of dollars to the ounce in gems.

A gold watch set with a half-carat diamond, was then found in a talcum powder can near the house, and when employes of a milling company, cleaning the sluiceway gates in a water power canal, drew up a pearl necklace valued at $1,000, excitement increased. The canal is near the house in which the men, held on burglary charges, roomed.

When a man has no love for work he goes out to work the public.
